Approval of minutes of April 30, 2013 meeting

ACTION: The coaches voted (12-0-0-0) to approve the minutes of the April 30, 2013 meeting.

1. Media and Communication Updates

Dave Hirsch reviewed the new process for selection of Pac-12 player of the week. Hirsch reminded the group of the schedule for the weekly media teleconference.

2. Officiating

Bobby Dibler introduced himself and gave an overview of the NCAA officiating points of emphasis, hand checking, freedom of movement and block charge. He cautioned the coaches they would see more whistles this year than in the past due to the new rule changes. He cautioned that more blocks would be called than charges under the new points of emphasis. Dibler reviewed the rules on use of the monitor in the last two minutes of overtime. He explained that there were 28 rule changes due to the two-year cycle. Dibler gave an overview of the assignment process and roster for the 2013-14 season.

3. Conference Updates

Kevin Weiberg gave an overview of the Pac-12 international initiatives in China. For 2014-15 the conference does not have a team eligible for a foreign tour and is exploring an all-star tour as well as a regular season game in China. Herb Sendek and Craig Robinson shared their experiences in China. Weiberg touched on the governance changes under consideration for the NCAA including an examination of student-athlete benefits, grant-in-aid limits and the detailed nature of the regulations as currently as written.

4. Pac-12 Networks

Lydia Murphy-Stephans gave an update on the Networks and thanked the coaches for the access granted to Networks last year during the regular season.

5. Scheduling Opportunities

Gloria Nevarez gave an overview of conversations between the Conference office and other leagues and venues to provide additional non-conference scheduling opportunities.

6. 2013 Tournament

Nevarez gave a recap of the 2013 tournament and changes for the 2014 basketball tournament in Las Vegas. Conference staff was still working with the MGM on conference room space in lieu of the administration building for team meetings and meals.

7. NABC Committee Reports

Romar gave an update on a fund created by the NABC for assistance to coaches to cover medical bills and other issues. Coaches will be asked to contribute to a fund similar to paying dues. Romar briefly covered progress on recruiting rule changes.

8. Future Meetings

Romar reviewed the future meeting schedule.
The meeting was adjourned at 8:58am.
